

Models gathered with Gretchen Kirchmann, who led the Rodeo and Rhinestones event. Pictured from left to right are: Brooklyn Brovold, Olivia Stevens, Shyanne Rodning (The Rustic Coop MN collection), Pleasant Hills Saddle Shop models (names unavailable) KMG models Kaylin Gruber (Miss Buffalo Rodeo 2023), Gretchen Kirchmann (MC and former Minnesota HS Rodeo Queen), Sophia Hillmann (Miss Rodeo Minnesota 2022), Allison Kirchmann, Sienna Sansevere, Serendipity models Leah Morgan, Allie Batchelder, and Lauren Komberg. (Photos by Emily Vojtech)

Miss Buffalo Rodeo, Leah Anderson confidently walked the runway at one of her last events as ambassador for the Buffalo Rodeo.

First ever Rodeo and Rhinestones event was huge success

By Emily Vojtech

For the first time, on Tuesday, June 21, the Buffalo Rodeo hosted a “Rodeo and Rhinestones” event at the Buffalo Civic Center. The evening was a ladies’ night out event filled with rodeo fashion. Local shops, and some from outside of Minnesota set up inside the civic center and visitors could enjoy shopping for clothes, rustic home décor, and more. Visitors also had the opportunity to enjoy food and drinks as they awaited the fashion show. The fashion show started around 6:15 p.m. and starred some local rodeo ambassadors, fashion designers, and community members from Buffalo. The event was well attended and well received by those who stopped by. It was a great way to kick off the 2022 Buffalo Rodeo festivities.

Many shops were set up at the Buffalo Civic Center on Tuesday, June 21, for the Rodeo and Rhinestones event.

Miss Rodeo Minnesota 2022 Sophia Hillmann walked the runway at the Rodeo and Rhinestones event in Buffalo, and also attended the Buffalo Rodeo over the weekend.

The next Miss Buffalo Rodeo, Kaylin Gruber, walked the runway at the Rodeo and Rhinestones event. She took over the reigns as Miss Buffalo Rodeo after the 2022 rodeo was completed.

Previous Miss Buffalo Rodeo, and 2021 Miss Rodeo Minnesota, Sam Sansevere wore a white gown to celebrate her recent engagement.